

Persons with Seeing Disabilities –
Problems and Challenges for Social Adaptation

Vanya Mateeva

(Summary)

The present text focuses its attention on the problem of social integration of people with seeing disabilities – which presents a real challenge to the society. On the one hand, the problems I have explored are experienced by people with seeing disabilities. On the other hand, these challenges exist in every society, but there are some regional and national specifics as well.